

BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONS) IN LIBERAL STUDIES (BALS) GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

- Students must complete a total of 28 courses (121 credits) in order to graduate.
- BALS students must complete at least one course from the Humanities cluster and another course from the Social Sciences when choosing their elective courses.
- LSS312/05 Principles of Social Research has been moved from the elective cluster to the Compulsory Courses (General Education) category. It will be a compulsory course. This revised requirement is applicable to new students enrolling into the BALS programme from the July 2016 intake onwards.
- The number of elective courses has been reduced from ten to nine (45 credits) for new students enrolling in the BALS programme from the July 2016 intake onwards.
- The students are also required to complete at least six level 300 courses (30 credits), including LSS312/05 Principles of Social Research.
- Earlier batches of BALS students (who enrolled before January 2014) need to complete 26 courses (120 credits) to graduate. They are also required to complete a minimum of six level-300 courses (30 credits).

Dr. S. Nagarajan
Dean
School of Foundation and Liberal Studies
27 April 2016